Two Destroyers Invited Here For July 4 Celebration

Attempts to have two destroyers from the United States Fleet, which will be visiting in San Francisco, moor at the Port of Redwood City on July 4 as a feature of the celebration will be made by Mayor Louis C. Christensen.

Mayor Christensen directed a letter Monday to Congressman John Z. Anderson asking him to endeavor to have the ships visit Redwood City.

Two destroyers were here at the opening of the harbor Sept. 11, 1937.

Recreation Director Alfred Morton announced that he had sent letters to a number of organizations asking their aid in the queen contest planned in connection with the celebration. William M. (Bill) Werder, who was chairman of the last queen contest here, in which Miss Mildred Nelson was selected to represent this city at last year's San Francisco Fair, will be chairman of the coming contest.

Plant Array Now Offered

Nurseries are now offering a fascinating array of young plants, and it is the time to choose the varieties and colors to make the Spring and Summer garden most effective.

Young chrysanthemums are now ready, and the exotic Korean singles, in vivid red and yellow shades, will prove popular this year. Old-fashioned favorites such as violas, violets, dwarf hardy asters, English daisies and Sweet Williams are seen in every nursery. Dramatic transvaal daisies, Iceland poppies and columbines should be available now. Carnation plants in a variety of colors are ready for immediate planting, and young rose bushes should be set out now.

When you have chosen the young plants, you will want to insure quick growth and best results by proper soil preparation and feeding of the plants.

A manure should be spaded into the soil in preparation for setting out the plants. Grozit pulverized sheep manure containing Vitamin B1 is recommended as having high fertilizing value and proper ageing, and in addition is guaranteed free from odor and weed seed. The sheep manure will go to work immediately as a soil conditioner and continue to function as a fertilizer throughout the growing season.

Once the right soil environment is provided, the next step is to see that an adequate supply of essential plant food is available. A complete plant food most suitable to local soil conditions contains all essential elements including nitrogen, phosphorus and potash, in a 5-10-4 ratio. After years of research, a California concern has developed such a plant food called Super-Grozit that automatically releases its nitrogen in relays, one after another, so as to sustain action longer.

Four Attacked By Rabid Dog At Daly City

A dog that apparently had clinical rabies ran wild in the north end of San Mateo County Wednesday and bit 2 adults and 2 school children, according to word received at the office of County Health Director Charles C. Gans.

Sent to the hospital for preliminary Pasteur treatment were Norma Claus, 36, teacher at Balboa High School, San Francisco, and Mrs. Gwenn Hunt, 35; Valia Orlandi, 8, and Juanita Crane, 8, all of Colma and Daly City.

The dog, captured in Daly City through combined efforts of hospital attendants, police and the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, was impounded in San Francisco. Dr. George Becker of that city's health department said the animal would die in a few days, and that if examination then substantiates the clinical report, those bitten would continue Pasteur treatments.

Dr. Becker expressed fear the animal had bitten other dogs, and that the latter in six to eight weeks might be dangerous.

He urged the keeping of dogs at home or on leash.

S. M. Youth Winner Of Speaking Contest

Thomas Arata of San Mateo High School Monday won the San Mateo County championship in the California Bankers Assn. public speaking contest on "The Values of American Citizenship," held at Sequoia High School in Redwood City.

Arata received a gold medal and will represent this county in the northern California regional competition in San Jose Apr. 29.

Others who spoke were Dolores Patchen, Sequoia; Margaret Nulle, Mercy High School, Burlingame; Adrian Winkler, Burlingame; Norine Monetine, South San Francisco; Charlotte Weate, Jefferson (Daly City).

Miss Isabel Garcia of Sequoia presided. J. E. Morrish, manager of the First National Bank, was chairman.

Migrant Workers Arrive on Coastside

Warm weather and an early pea crop have brought scores of migratory workers to the San Mateo County Coastside—with no provisions for their housing. Coastside residents reported that the pea pickers' trailers were scattered along the roadside from Montara to Pescadero, waiting for opening of the pea camps and start of the harvest.

Dr. C. C. Gans, county health and welfare director, dispatched an inspector to the scene. Only one farmer has made the necessary application to operate a camp, and none of the others is ready, he reported.

For the time being, the pickers are being referred to one camp open at Half Moon Bay and to auto courts.

STEED TRIAL MOVED

Trial of George Steed, 23, Burlingame, slayer of his father, Andrew, was transferred to Department 1 of the superior court by Judge A. R. Cotton on his own motion Monday. No explanation for the change was made. Arraignment was postponed a week.

R. C. Youth Among Stanford Graduates

Daniel Wright Sisson of Redwood City was graduated this week from Stanford University with the degree of bachelor of arts in economics.

Another graduate, in journalism, was Omer V. Crane of Modesto, who for the past year and a half has been employed part-time on the editorial staff of the Tribune. He has now returned to his home in Modesto.

75 View Recreation Setup on Peninsula

More than 75 persons from recreation departments, projects and city administrations throughout San Mateo County attended the second annual countywide inspection tour Saturday, which visited communities from Menlo Park to Daly City in a program running from 9 a.m. to 5:30 p.m.

Luncheon was served at the American Legion Hall in Burlingame, after which the party visited the Gunst Estate in Burlingame, purchased by the city for $30,000 as recreational property. It has been developed to a certain extent already and considerably more work is to be done there.

The tour revealed that extensive development of recreation is under way in most of the cities in the county, particularly Burlingame, San Bruno, San Mateo, Menlo Park and San Carlos. San Bruno contemplates a development of $100,000, already started by the purchase of an $18,000 site. San Carlos has spent about $15,000 on its new recreation center, and the Works Projects Administration has contributed between $30,000 and $40,000 additional.

Ex-Members Of Club Feted

Romantic days of San Francisco and the Peninsula's past, particularly those centered around the old Palace Hotel, were recalled for 58 members, ex-members and guests of the Redwood City Exchange Club by Carroll D. Hall, first president, Tuesday night when "Old Timers Night" drew 20 former members of the local club back for an evening.

Several ex-members were present from other towns, including San Mateo, Burlingame and Menlo Park, and one, Guy R. Kennedy, came from Vallejo.

Hall, Redwood City resident and co-author with Oscar D. Lewis of the book "Bonanza Inn," told of how the idea for the book was germinated in 1934; how he searched through voluminous yellowed newspaper files to get his material, how he and Lewis together drafted, wrote and rewrote the eight chapters, then described a number of interesting incidents detailed in the volume, which has proved extremely popular not only in the Bay Region but in other states.

The book tells of numerous occurrences that centered around the Palace — "Bonanza Inn"—including the time when the famed poetess Ella Wheeler Wilcox was, in effect, snubbed by the British actress, Mrs. Patrick Campbell, because she didn't know who Mrs. Wilcox was; about the romance of Senator Sharon and Sarah Althea Hill and her later marriage to Atty. David Terry; of Terry's murder; of Sarah's confinement to Stockton State Hospital where she was virtually forgotten for a half century until located by the book's authors; and of many other events. Hall said in describing several.

First days of the local Exchange Club, which was founded in March, 1926, were recalled by Dr. W. B. Langston, one of the charter members, first secretary and third president. Wilbur H. Doxsee, another charter member who, like Dr. Langston, is still active, gave a tribute to the late County Auditor J. J. Shields, the only one of more than 85 past and present members of the club who is deceased. J. A. Buhler, a past president, told of present activities of the local club. Kenneth L. Bowen, president, presided.

'Scandals' Set For Two-Week S. F. Run

With a cast of more than 100, and set in 2 acts and 30 scenes, the latest stage edition of George White's "Scandals" will make its bow at San Francisco's Curran Theater Monday. Matinee performances will be Wednesdays and Saturdays.

Marking the first new "Scandals" to reach the footlights since 1935, Producer White has aimed to make it the most pretentious in point of costumes and scenic investitures in the entire famous series that has preceded it. The revue comes here from New York and Chicago sell outs.

Words and music are by Jack Yellen and Sammy Fain; the dialogue by Matt Brooks, Eddie Davis and White. Producer White has contrived the many original dance steps for the ensemble.

WILL CONTEST DROPPED

Contest of the will of Mary Cassedy Storm, Burlingame voice teacher who died June 20, 1939, was dismissed here in superior court "with prejudice," barring any revival of the action. The contestants were Percy R. Storm of Hollywood and Helen Rae Storm of Los Angeles, nephew and niece. The estate was valued at $16,200. Practically the entire estate went to a sister, Mrs. Anne Cassedy Ryan of Burlingame.

MENLO PARK NEWS

MENLO PARK, Apr. 11—Isabelle Weeden Lindquist, past noble grand of Palo Alto Rebekah Lodge 291, who was elected as a delegate to the Rebekah Assembly in Fresno May 13 to 17, will not be able to attend because of the illness of her father, William H. W. Weeden.

Rev. and Mrs. Charles Fritz and Walter have returned from a brief trip to Paso Robles.

Last Saturday Mr. and Mrs. Edward Derry gave a birthday party for their son, Edward Joe, at their home on Pine St. The young man had reached the mature age of eight years. He assisted his mother in entertaining 30 of his friends and classmates from St. Joseph's School. Games were enjoyed and refreshments served in the late afternoon to the pleasure of the youngsters who wished Eddie Joe many happy returns of the joyous occasion.

The municipal election on Tuesday was a spirited affair, nearly 70 per cent of the 1700 voters coming to the polls. Interest centered around the candidates for two places on the board and a good stiff fight was made by friends of the aspirants. The bond issue to raise funds for a recreation park and the proposition to provide a salary for councilmen added force in bringing out the voters. A keen contest over city-clerk and treasurer added interest. The result was as follows:

For treasurer: Mrs. Katherine Maloney, 867; Miss Ursula Leonardi, 192.

Salary for councilmen: Yes, 365; no, 650.

Bonds: Yes, 624; no, 385.

It is said that there will be no changes in the personnel of the board, though it's hinted there may be a shakeup in the police department. The three incumbents are not in accord. No one knows what will happen when the next board gets down to business. Councilmen Carrol appears to be the free lancer who will dominate the council for the next two years. It is believed he will be the next mayor. Mayor Cooper may not be willing to relinquish the chair. However, the incoming members will determine that issue.

The new parochial residence of Father McKeon is nearing completion. The builders, Weeden Bros., are rushing the work in order that it may be ready for occupancy May 1.

James Flood has applied to the superior court for letters of guardianship of the estate of his son, James Claire Flood, age 1 year. The estate is valued at $82,250. When the boy arrives at the age of 21 the amount will have tripled. Young Jim need have no worries before that time because he may be in the millionaire class, an heir to the Flood millions.

The census enumerator is in town. Girls, beware! He'll insist upon your age. Tell the truth. Uncle Sam won't disclose it.

300 Printed For Children

Tickets for the boat excursion to Treasure Island on June 2 are on public sale here at five stores, according to Sanford T. Ratliff, chairman of the Eagles committee.

The business firms handling the tickets are Dr. Paul R. Leigh, 12 California St., E. A. Fletcher, 735 El Camino Real, Coats' Cigar Store, 2366 Broadway, Ryan's Drug Store, 2009 Broadway, and the R & R Service Station, Main and Middlefield.

The adult tickets are $1 each. Three hundred tickets for children 12 years or under have been printed at 50 cents each. As soon as the children's tickets are sold, the price for both adults and children will be $1.

Several hundred tickets were reserved even before they were printed, according to the committee, indicating that an early rush may cause a complete sell-out long before the sailing date. The committee besides Ratliff includes Dr. Leigh, Edward I McAuliffe, Kenneth Mills, O. S. Oleson, Paul E. Lowe and Pres. C. L. White, ex-officio.

The city council has set June 2 as the date for "Redwood City Day" at the 1940 Fair and requested the chamber of commerce to appoint a committee to formulate the necessary plans. A meeting of the committees from the chamber of commerce and the Eagles will be held soon, according to Ratliff, to work out the advertising of Redwood City on the boat, which will be seen by thousands of people around the Bay Region.

Suggestions Are Offered

Relief from the present "invasion" of mosquitos can be expected in about a week, T. F. Gainer, superintendent of the Pulgas Mosquito Abatement District here, said here.

Answering questions in connection with complaints that had been received by his office, Gainer explained that during the recent storms he and his staff were unable to reach all possible breeding places.

"Everything was so flooded we couldn't get in to oil some of the places," Gainer said. "Consequently, the mosquitos got out. We hope that will be the only batch to get loose."

He explained that the "batch" had been released about two weeks ago; that a mosquito's average life is three weeks, so that there should be relief in Southern San Mateo County in another week, unless there is an "invasion" from elsewhere.

"Mosquitoes can fly about 50 miles in the wind," he explained. "And when they once get out, we can't do anything."

He said the worst spot now is in Belmont.

All breeding places are being kept oiled by Gainer and his staff, which now includes three regular men and two extras.

He suggested that people who have possible breeding places in the form of fish ponds or other pools put a small amount of kerosene or gasoline on the water. The oil will not injure the fish, for it will evaporate shortly, but will kill mosquitos within 15 minutes, he said. He warned that only kerosene or gasoline should be used.

Another means of making sure mosquitos do not breed in ponds is to stock them with mosquito fish, he said. Gainer said he would supply mosquito fish free to anyone who would telephone him at his office at the Walter Realty Co. (Redwood 70).

Critic Amazed At 'Varieties'

By STAFF REVIEWER

Your critic was pleasantly surprised to sit in a high school auditorium Saturday evening at Sequoia and see a performance in the 1940 Varieties that would have been a credit to collegiate entertainers. The applause of the audience of 600 often interrupted the dialogue of the actors. Exceptional direction was revealed in the clever arrangement of the skits.

Outstanding among a coterie of talented students was the black-face act of Ralph Davis. His presentation of two Negro tunes was distinguished by a voice that has both range and clarity. His tap dance was among the most intricate of the many given.

Bob McLean revealed a complete command of the drums in modern swing. Also noteworthy in the instrumental numbers was the piano solo by Jeannette Demma, who showed good concentration in a complicated semi-classical selection.

Excellent acrobatics accentuated by good rhythm featured the difficult act of the Hara sisters, Alice and Betty. In what should be classed with the acrobatic performances was the lightning-fast Russian dance given by Nick Kostriken.

Vocal solos marked the program throughout. Outstanding among the soloists was Lenora Belanger, whose voice was especially good in the novel arrangement of "A Japanese Tea Garden," in which she was accompanied by the choral class.

The theme, "A Trip to the Fair," was carried out with a replica of the Court of the Pacifica as a background. Morris Blackman, as master of ceremonies, ably tied the skits together in his humorous introductions of his fellow entertainers.

There are brown, red, green and even black honeys, besides the honey known in America which is whitish with yellow tinge.

Purcell Claims Lagoon Unharmed

The Redwood City Chamber of Commerce has received a letter from C. H. Purcell, state highway engineer, claiming that the planned extension of the Ocean Shore Hwy. across San Gregorio Lagoon will not seriously impair the recreational advantages of the lagoon, including fishing, Secty.-Mgr. Roscoe D. Wyatt reported.

Purcell's letter was a response to a plea from the chamber that nothing be done to eliminate the lagoon as one of the picnicking and fishing spots on the Peninsula. Sportsmen's groups and various other organizations throughout the Peninsula have waged an active battle against extension of the highway across the lagoon if it means destruction of the recreational advantages.

Purcell's letter said, in part:

"The situation has been carefully studied and examined by the headquarters and district engineers. The state is making provisions for preservation of the conditions as they now exist to the fullest extent possible. An auxiliary culvert will be placed in the present lagoon bed. Provision is made for construction of a channel which will retain the creek waters in a large part of the lagoon. Only that part of the lagoon actually occupied by the roadway fill as it crosses the same will be affected.

"With the provisions the facilities for recreation, including fishing, will be available to the general public and accessibility will also be improved."

Police Arrive Before Blows Ensue in Row

Redwood City police on Tuesday stopped what threatened to become a first class street fight between members of Redwood City Carpenters Union, local 1408. Officers found 50 angry men surrounding a lone picket who dared label union headquarters "unfair."

The picket was Lorne McDiarmid, 428 Chestnut St., who for $2 bore his banner labeled "Unfair to Shinglers" in front of Foresters' Hall where the carpenters were in session.

When the carpenters discovered their "unfair" label they rushed out to take McDiarmid's banner from him. In parked automobiles across the street were half a dozen shinglers with a grievance against the union. They had paid McDiarmid $2, and rushed to the defense of his banner, police said.

A riot call to police headquarters brought a radio patrol car to the scene before any blows were struck. No arrests were made.

It was learned that the shinglers were at "outs" with the union because of council trial board penalties assessed against them for failing to carry compensation insurance policies. The fines ranged from $50 to $100, the heavier amount being levied in two cases. The shinglers contended the penalties were excessive and unjust.

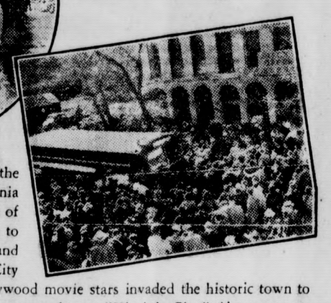
By establishing a picket line they made it embarassing for union men to attend their own meeting.

Wage Increases Asked by Pressmen

Wage increases and other boons are asked by union pressmen employed on Peninsula newspapers in the employment contract they proposed Tuesday for adoption by publishers in San Mateo County and Palo Alto, the territory within the jurisdiction of the San Mateo County Printing Pressman and Assistants' Union 315.

The conference on the proposals held in the Benjamin Franklin Hotel, San Mateo, was attend by the following publishers and managers; George A. McQueen, Burlingame Advance; Harry Butler, San Mateo Times; Sam H. Winklebeck, Redwood City Tribune; Gene Bishop, Palo Alto Times. Representing the union was J. H. de la Rosa and H. I. Christie, president and secretary, respectively, of the California Allied Printing Trades Conference. Richard V. McAllister, president of the San Mateo Printing Pressmen and Assistants' Union 315; John Berke of San Francisco, representing the local pressmen's union, and George G. Spooner of San Francisco sat in as representatives of the international pressmen's organization.

Another conference will be held at an early date when the publishers are expected to submit their reply to the collective bargaining proposal.



Virginia City Roars Again!

Way back in the heyday of the famous Comstock Lode, Virginia City, Nevada, was a booming city of 30,000. Today it has dwindled to 488 people, its streets are bare and ghostly. This spring, Virginia City roared again when a host of Hollywood movie stars invaded the historic town to celebrate the world premiere of the great picture, "Virginia City." Above you see Errol Flynn, Sigrid Gurie, Alan Hale and Bruce Cabot as they arrived via Greyhound bus in Virginia City for the celebration. This mode of comfortable travel was in sharp contrast to the stage coach (in circle) in which they traveled to Virginia City in the picture. At the right above is shown the throng who stormed Piper's Opera House when the movie stars put on a special performance.

NEW SEQUOIA HANDBOOK PREPARED FOR FUTURE FRESHMEN STUDENTS

Freshman coming to Sequoia High School in the future will be given an informational handbook to guide them through their early days of school, according to plans of Floyd Elson, public speaking teacher at Sequoia, who is collecting information with the help of Students Phil Ticer, editor-in-chief, and Bob Copp, assistant editor.

Plans call for material on all school activities to be included. The book will contain articles on traditions and "color" surrounding the school. There will be a map of the buildings and grounds. Most of the work will be completed by the end of May, according to Elson.

Students assigned to gather and write various articles include John Sisson and Don Clark, who will write the administration activity; Jepson Garland and Rosemarie Withgitt, course of study; Elizabeth Costello and Bud Hefner, activities; Boris Wolper and Jack Saboff, school history; and Judy Moore and Weber Lund who will help on general information.

TIMES STAFF MEMBERS TO ATTEND FORUM

Several members of the Sequoia Times staff will join 500 other student editors from California at the "College of Publications" forum at the University of California Apr. 18.

The convention will feature talks by prominent newspaper men and student round table discussions on the topics relating to high school publications. There will be campus tours and inspections of city newspapers and printing plants.

It was also announced by the journalism department that on Apr. 13 Rose Roy, Sequoia Times feature editor, will apply for the scholarship awarded by the San Francisco College chapter of Alpha Phi Gamma, national coeducation honorary journalism fraternity.

The Sequoia Times won a first-place rating recently in the national high school newspaper contest sponsored by the Columbia Scholastic Press Association at Columbia University, New York.

AND NOW THEY BUILD HOUSES FOR TERMITES!

Students of Mrs. Anne Bigler's biology classes have recently opened a novel house—one for ill-cared termites. The termites will be given every consideration, according to the teacher. The first family to occupy the home has already been donated by Claude Flock, practice teacher.

The house will be made of glass, set in a damp foundation of sand and gravel. The termites will have their fun with the soft wood which will be inside.

H. J. Vreeburg, Store Owner, Passes Away

Hugo J. Vreeburg, owner for the past 21 years of the Redwood Paint & Wallpaper Co. on Broadway, died at a San Mateo hospital Sounday. He had suffered a heart attack early in the morning.

Mr. Vreeburg, who was 52, and a native of Amsterdam, Holland, had been in ill health for some time, but had maintained an active interest in his store, which is managed by his son, Harold. Another son, Walter, and a daughter, Sylveen, in addition to Mr. Vreeburg's wife, Kathleen, survive him. All live at the family home at 69 Finger Ave.

Two brothers, Kas Vreeburg of Redwood City and Adrian Vreeburg of Holland, also survive, as do two sisters, Mrs. Minnie Jacobs of Holland and Marie Vreeburg of South Africa.

A painting contractor for some time before entering business here, Mr. Vreeburg had lived in Redwood City for nearly 23 years. He had worked on a number of large homes, particularly in the Woodside district.

He belonged to Redwood City Aerie 418, Fraternal Order of Eagles.

Woollcott's Play On Two More Weeks

The Sam H. Harris production of "The Man Who Came to Dinner," comedy success by Moss Hart and George S. Kaufman, with the famous commentator, actor, author, critic and wit, Alexander Woollcott, in the title role, will move to San Francisco's Geary Theater Monday for a farewell engagement of two weeks.

Playing currently in San Francisco, New York and Chicago, the West Coast presentation with Mr. Woollcott as the central figure has that added interest of a famous personality, portraying a character designed for him originally.

The story concerns itself with Sheridan Whiteside, author, lecturer, critic, who slips on the ice on the doorstep of a home to which he is invited for dinner in a small Ohio town. He is laid up for weeks recovering from his injury, and it is with his trials and tribulations in the home of the Stanleys that "The Man Who Came to Dinner" deals.

The major problem which Mr. Whiteside faces in Massalia, O., however, is the threatened defection of his competent secretary. Miss Cutler, it appears, has fallen in love, and she is on the verge of leaving her boss, a circumstance which completely upsets the ordered routine of living which is Mr. Whiteside's pride and joy. And the Machiavelian plots and counterplots which are concocted to foil Miss Cutler's departure are the theme of the play.

Woollcott is supported by a New York cast of 30.

George Lynn Starts Statewide Weekly

George W. Lynn, former resident of Palomar Park, Redwood City, has launched "Lynn's California Weekly State Jester," a unique paper of statewide circulation, at Ojai, Ventura County, according to word received here. Lynn has established his home in that city.

In his first edition, Lynn announced that his purpose of starting a weekly paper of statewide circulation is to think his own thoughts and print them with the most freedom possible from any influences other than his own "slant" on life.

Lynn formerly was editorial writer for the San Francisco Call-Bulletin, then special secretary to the state administration during the recent special session of the legislature. His daughter, Joan, published Belmont and San Carlos weekly papers for a time.

Coastsider Burns To Death in Cabin

HALF MOON BAY, Apr. 10—Virtually cremated, the body of Richard Rixey, 86, was found last night in the glowing embers of what was once his little one-room cabin on the Quilli Madonna ranch where he kept a swarm of bees.

Attracted by the flames which they could see 1½ miles away in Half Moon Bay, Pat Cardoza, John Marsh and Paul Pecche rushed to the scene only to find the cabin burned to the ground. The old man's body was beside an over-turned kerosene stove. It was reported that a drum of gasoline had exploded.

Coroner William F. Crosby said that Mr. Rixey apparently had stumbled and knocked over the stove. He may have suffered a heart attack and fallen.

Mr. Rixey had been a resident of the Coastside for a number of years. He lived at the home of Mrs. Paul Pecche and was in the habit of spending a few days at a time at his cabin caring for his bees.

2 Mayors, Clerk Defeated in Vote Of North Cities

In Northern San Mateo County's elections on Tuesday, two mayors were unseated, Mayor E. J. McGuire of San Bruno who had served as council head 10 years, and Mayor A. J. Eschelbach of South San Francisco. Mayor Eschelbach had been mentioned as a potential candidate for supervisor.

As a result of David Ratto's run, he and not Eschelbach was being mentioned as the potential first township supervisor candidate. Ratto said he might run but had made no decision.

In San Bruno the city clerk, Mrs. Helen Landweer, who had served for seven years, also was defeated.

In the only contest in the county where absentee ballots may change results, South San Francisco's election definitely decided only two places. Upon the balloting of 35 absentees will depend the outcome of the contest for third place between Incumbent Michael Minnucciani and Reese Lloyd.

In Burlingame, former Mayor William W. Hives, once a county supervisorial candidate, was defeated when a ticket supported by the Burlingame Advance was elected.

'HUNCHBACK' IN DEEP DESPAIR

BENEFIT OF SAN MATEO-BELMONT MERGER IS STUDIED BY CHAMBER

BELMONT, Apr. 10—Discussion of the possible consolidation of San Mateo and Belmont city governments was only brief at last night's meeting of the Belmont Chamber of Commerce, and ended with decision to investigate possible advantages, for report at the next meeting of the organization. Peter F. Ross, chairman of civic activities, will report on the matter.

Careful study also will be given to a proposal that the Belmont Fire Department expand its territory to include South San Mateo, and a report will be made May 14, date of the next meeting.

Alterations to the San Carlos Southern Pacific Station spurred the chamber to contact the railroad with a request that improvements be made on the Belmont station. Reconstruction of the San Carlos station proper will cost $4000, and an additional $2000 is being spent to enlarge the parking area and beautify the grounds.

J. C. McCarthy and Dan St. George were appointed to study the possibility of the chamber joining the San Mateo County Federation of Improvement Clubs.

Ross reported his committee is seeking means to construct a community center building in which the city library could be housed.

The National Transcribers Society for the Blind will be represented at the next meeting to explain the Braille system, H. Walden, program chairman, announced. Walden also revealed Frank Beckman will present an illustrated talk on his recent trip to Mexico at the June 5 meeting. Fifty were present, including seven new members.

QUEEN ENTRIES SOUGHT

High school girls in San Mateo County today were invited to enter the Outdoor Girl competition at Salinas Rodeo July 18-21. San Mateo County Fiesta will handle the selection of the San Mateo County entry, it was announced. Entries will be received at the fiesta office in San Mateo.

All Incumbents Except One Win In South Cities

Southern San Mateo County residents outside of Redwood City returned all except one incumbent official to office on Tuesday, and at the same time approved one bond issue and rejected another.

The bond issue which was approved was that for $25,000 to build a new firehouse in San Carlos.

Barely rejected was the $6000 issue to finance development of a recreation center in Menlo Park. Although it secured a majority vote, the necessary two-thirds majority was not quite received. The proposal to increase council salaries in Menlo Park was beaten.

COASTSIDE HARBOR BILL PASSES HOUSE AND SENATE COMMITTEES

tually assuring passage. Only serious question, the attorney said, would be whether or not it would be considered before adjournment. He reported that Anderson is pressing for early action.

A bill passed by Congress at its last session approved the Pillar Point survey, but it was vetoed by President Roosevelt.

After passage of the bill, a hearing will be conducted by federal engineers to determine the advisability of the project, Morrissey said.

"It will be up to us to show that the project has merit," Morrissey said. "We are prepared to do that."

Congressman John Z. Anderson has notified Atty. W. H. Morrissey in Redwood City that the Coastside's request for a federal survey of the proposed Pillar Point breakwater at Half Moon Bay is one of 380 projects already approved by the House of Representatives Rivers and Harbors Committee, the Senate Rivers and Harbors Committee, and the Senate Commerce Committee.

The bill will now go before the House and the Senate, the congressman said.

Morrissey pointed out that the bill had been broken up into three sections, all three of which had been approved by the three committees, thus placing the bill on a solid foundation and vir-

INJURED BY ASSAILANT

SAN CARLOS, Apr. 8 — John Grant, 32, 730 Cordilleras Ave., San Carlos, and Floyd Taber, 32, San Francisco, were treated for lacerations of the head at Mills Hospital early yesterday. They told San Carlos police that they had been attacked by an unknown person as they were walking along the street in San Carlos. Neither was admitted to the hospital.

Reason for Honoring Schools Pointed Out

Miss Pansy Jewett Abbott, county superintendent of schools, today advocated this topic for Public Schools Week: "What Is Right With Our Schools?"

"San Mateo County has just reason to rejoice at this time," she declared. "Our building programs are being carried on satisfactorily. Our elementary curriculum publications have been given national recognition. We are providing better training for our handicapped children. Our high schools are aware of the need for vocational training as well as academic training.

"Our junior college has demonstrated beyond a doubt that it is an institution worthy of its name. The citizens of San Mateo County have evidenced an increasing interest in the 'big business' of education."

She expressed the hope that Public Schools Week (Apr. 22-26) will bring teachers, administrators, taxpayers and school patrons all closer together to insure the children "their rightful heritage for 1940."
